NEW COURSE OFFERING!

ORGANIZING FOR ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE

CL-620

This course provides educational resources and practical experiences to organize for environmental justice in the contexts of neighborhoods, cities, and regions through not-for-profit management, faith-based leadership, and public engagement.

Leadership and content for this course is provided by Faith in Place, a globally recognized faith-based environmental justice organization.

Learn By Doing
Plan and implement two projects with local faith communities!

Field Trips
Classes will consist of classroom meetings and field trips to environmental organizing sites throughout Chicagoland.

Community
Available as Academic Credit (3 Credit Hours) or Audit

To learn more and to register, go to Garrett.edu/EnvironmentalJustice

Spring 2019 | Class Time: Friday 2:00 - 5:00 PM | No Prerequisites